Wallingford Rod & Gun Club, Inc.

Senior membership in the Wallingford Rod & Gun Club is open to all United States citizens over seventeen years of age who are sponsored by an existing Senior or Life Club member in good standing. Prospective members are invited to visit the Club at any time, preferably accompanied by their Club member sponsor. The Club offers many fine facilities for the outdoor sports enthusiast, including an 8 acre trout-stocked pond open year-round; 1 standard archery course; 2 regulation trap fields with five station pads; a well maintained rifle range; a highly-rated 12 station sporting clay course across the pond; a dog training facility and pheasant, deer and turkey hunting on 500 acres of Club owned or leased property in Wallingford or one of its contiguous communities.

To become a member, one must submit to the Membership Secretary this application along with a nonrefundable $15 application fee, plus $1.50 CT Dues Tax, total $16.50. (Check or Money Order Only) At that time, the application will be sequentially numbered and the applicant's name will be placed on a waiting list. During this period, the applicant may or may not be asked to appear before a Membership Committee, which will review the application and make recommendations to the general membership. Upon notification of acceptance of the application by the membership, the applicant must pay the first year's membership dues and expenses within 15 days of notification. It is the applicant's responsibility to keep the Club Membership Secretary apprised of any address, telephone number, or E-mail address changes during the waiting period. The Club Membership Secretary will not expend a significant amount of time and effort to locate applicants who have changed addresses since submitting this application. As of September 2011, the total first year cost of membership is $350.00. This cost comprises: annual dues of $240, land lease expense of $25.00, $30 expense for birds, $30 expense for fish, $1 for the window decal and button, and Connecticut Dues tax of 10% on the annual dues. The $25.00 land lease expense is levied on all new members for the first 5 years of membership after which it is dropped. Once accepted, senior members can sponsor spouses and/or children for spousal or dependent membership at any time. Senior members are required to work on Club projects for a minimum of 15 hours each year or pay an additional annual labor assessment of $11.00 for each hour not worked. Labor assessment charges are taxed at the 10% CT Dues Tax rate. Yearly dues, assessments, taxes and expenses must all be paid by the October meeting. In signing and submitting this application, the applicant acknowledges that he/she has read the Club rules and bylaws and agrees to abide by them if accepted into the Club. Club Rules and Bylaws are available for review any time the club house is open and are located on the activity sign out table on the main floor.
